Carmen Nickerson and Kostia Efimov bring together two remarkable musical journeys. Carmen's Iowa-grown roots and expressive voice shine through songs from her debut album Room to Grow, praised by the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel for her "shimmering voice that seizes the spotlight." Pianist Kostia Efimov, classically trained in St. Petersburg and later recording with Narada Records in the United States, brings elegance and depth to every performance. Together, their voice-and-piano collaboration blends classical, jazz, and pop into an intimate and engaging musical experience.

Who was the "real" Rosie the riveter? It was Rosie the Riveter to the rescue during WWII, when America experienced an acute labor shortage, threatening the continued output of American manufacturing and the war effort itself. Come and learn about the women who brought a lifetime of experience to a transformational time in the lives of pioneering women. They gave the US a new icon of strength, determination, and reliability, promoting the changing perception of working women.

Get ready for a dazzling afternoon of music, memories, and a little rock-and-roll sparkle! We're heading to the Lincolnshire Marriott Theatre to see Heartbreak Hotel – the official bio-musical celebrating the life and legacy of Elvis Presley, the man who became The King of Rock and Roll. This high-energy production takes us through the pivotal moments that shaped his extraordinary rise to fame – all set to 40 of his iconic songs.

For lunch, we'll gather at Wildfire Restaurant for a delicious three-course luncheon served family-style – great food, great company, and plenty of time to visit.

🎵 Bright lights. Big hits. Delicious bites. It's a day trip you won't want to miss!
