Holiday Luncheon

December 11, 2025

FEATURING DAN KRILL

Join OWLS (Older, Wiser, Livelier Seniors) at the Western Racquet Club for our Annual Holiday Luncheon — a joyful afternoon filled with laughter, good company, and festive music.

This year's celebration features a special performance by Dan Krill, one of southeastern Wisconsin's most beloved musicians. A talented multi-instrumentalist, folksinger, and songwriter, Dan has released more than five full-length albums of original songs that beautifully blend storytelling, humor, and heart.

Across the region, Dan is known for his rich vocals, engaging instrumentals, and the kind of easy charm that makes every audience feel like old friends gathered together for something special.

Relax, enjoy a delicious lunch, and let the music fill the room with familiar folk tunes, timeless classics, and original pieces that celebrate the spirit of the season. It's sure to be an afternoon of music, memories, and community you won't want to miss!

Cost: $50.00 for members $55.00 for guests

Milwaukee in the 1950's: No Wonder they called it "Happy Days".

Prof. Stephen Hauser,
Historian and Educator

Thursday, November 20, 2025

You remember the arrival of the Milwaukee Braves in 1953, or the visit by Douglas MacArthur in 1951 and much more... This engaging program ties the big headlines to everyday life—industry on the rise, neighborhoods growing, and local traditions taking root. Come for the history; stay for the stories that make the 1950s feel close to home.
