

Presented by:
Judy Pelt

Who was the "real" Rosie the riveter? It was Rosie the Riveter to the rescue during WWII, when America experienced an acute labor shortage, threatening the continued output of American manufacturing and the war effort itself. Come and learn about the women who brought a lifetime of experience to a transformational time in the lives of pioneering women. They gave the US a new icon of strength, determination, and reliability, promoting the changing perception of working women.
